NEW SCHOLAR

CONTENTS volume 9

BORDER PERSPECTIVES
ON THE U.S./MEXICO RELATIONSHIP
Joseph Nalven, Special Editor

Border Perspectives: A Foreword iv

The Historical View of Octavio Paz:
A Critique of the Washington Address

James W. Wilkie 1

The Poetics of History: A Defense of the Washington Address of Octavio Paz

Willard Gingerich 13

Searching for Imaginative Responses to Inevitable Challenges

Carlos E. Cortés 39

Northern Mexican Migration and the U.S./Mexico Border Region

Ellwyn R. Stoddard 51

The U.S. Guest Worker Debate

Richard Mines and Philip L. Martin 73

What Drives Mexican Illegal Border-Crossers into the U.S.? A Psychological Perspective

Guido A. Barrientos, Harmon M. Hosch, William G. Lucker, and Aldolfo J. Alvarez 87

Mexican Immigration and Petroleum: A Folklorist's Perspective

María Herrera-Sobek 99

American Perceptions of Undocumented Immigrants: Political Implications

Brian Loveman and C. Richard Hofstetter 111

The Border as Social System: The California Case

Robert Alvarez 119

Border Communities as a Field of Historical Investigation

David Piñera Ramírez 135

An Excerpt from Temporary Paradise

Kevin Lynch and Donald Appleyard 143

Place, Politics and the Market: The Loss and Recovery of Territorial Values

John Friedmann 147

Prelude to a Binational Planning Model:
A Portrait of Land Development Decisions
in the California Border Region

Lawrence A. Herzog 153

A Cooperation Paradox
and an 'Airy Tale Along the Border

Joseph Nalven 171

SYMAPing EPJAZ

Howard G. Applegate 201

Disputing Hidden Waters: Dimensions of Groundwater
Conflict Along the U.S./Mexico Border

Milton H. Jamail and Stephen P. Mumme 215

Observations on Mexico/U.S. Fishery Negotiations

Marc L. Miller and Charles F. Broches 231

Mexican Petroleum Policy and the United States

Stanley R. Ross 249

Improving United States/Mexican Economic Relations:
A Border Perspective

Norris Clement and Louis Green 257

How Should We Think About the Borderlands?
An Afterword

Richard R. Fagen 271

Maps 275